PRICE TWO CENTS

"BOB" COWIE MAY SEEK CONGRESS

Whitehall Standpat Judge Has Ambition to Represent the New Tenth District

IS NOT HEARD OF LOCALLY

Madison Story Has Not Reached La Crosse, but Galesville Paper Is Urging Candidacy

MADISON, Wis., Sept. 6.—(Special.)—Judge "Bob" Cowie of Whitehall is expected to seek the republican congressional nomination in the new Tenth Wisconsin district, according to gossip that has reached Madison.

Judge Cowie is a standpatter who has taken a prominent part in the reactionary campaigns for years. He was originally counted a "half-breed," but upon receiving a federal appointment to a Washington post under the patronage of the then Senator John C. Spooner, he became a Tory. Later he served as a member of the board of control under appointment by Governor James O. Davidson, but he was one of the first officials to be dispensed with by Gov. McGovern.

Speaker Charles Ingram and Senator Walter Owen are both spoken of for the republican nomination in the Tenth and Judge Cowie's hope of the nomination is based upon the theory that if these two strong progressives run the progressive majority will be split to let him in.

The Galesville Republican, a standpat newspaper published by Bert Gipple, has been urging Judge Cowie to make the run, but no decision has been reached by Cowie so far as he can be learned. W. E. Barber, who is usually in touch with the movements of the Taft machine in this section, informed The Tribune today that so far as he knew the Whitehall man had not decided to enter the race, owing to the cost of making the campaign.

LA FOLLETTE CAN'T ATTEND STATE FAIR

MADISON, Wis., Sept. 6.—Because of the pressure of work Senator Robert M. La Follette probably will be unable to attend the state fair in Milwaukee the week of September 15. It was the plan of the republican leaders to have him make a speech in the Milwaukee auditorium dealing with the presidential situation. Governor McGovern has arranged to attend the conference of governors in Spring Lake Sept. 12 to 15, and will not be able to attend the state fair. McGovern will read a paper on "Public Utilities."

OLD AGE CALLS MRS. ANNA DAHNS

Mrs. Anna E. Dahns, aged 91 years, died of old age at the home of her daughter, Mrs. O. A. Elbertson, 702 South Fifth street, at noon today. Surviving Mrs. Dahns are six children, Mrs. O. A. Elbertson and Mrs. Otto Parham of La Crosse, Mrs. L. Parham of Black River Falls, Mrs. Fred Ronnerberg of Hudson, Wis., Mrs. David Harley of Minneapolis, and Frank Dahns of Menomonie, Wis. Funeral arrangements will be announced later.

NOTABLE WOMAN DIES

CORK, Ireland, Sept. 6.—Katherine Cecil Thurston, famous as the author of "The Masquerader," "The Gambler" and other books, was found dead today in a hotel here. She was deserted by her husband in 1907, on the pretext that for the purposes of his literary work it was necessary for him to go to the very bottom of society. He took up his residence in the Soho quarters with another woman.

FAMINE IN CHINA

SHANGHAI, Sept. 6.—The most desperate measures are being adopted today to relieve the 800,000 famine sufferers in the Yangtze River Valley where 100,000 are said to have lost their lives in the recent floods. All crops in the district have been swept away. Only by foreign aid, it is said, can a great famine be checked.

BOLIVIA AND PERU UNDER WAR CLOUD

WASHINGTON, Sept. 6.—War between Bolivia and Peru is expected momentarily, according to dispatches received by the state department today, indicating a crisis in the situation between the two South American republics. Unofficial advices are that troops have clashed on the frontier. When this report reached the Bolivian capital a mob stoned the Peruvian legation and the police were unable to prevent wrecking the building.

Hero Of Shipwreck

Jack Sheetz is only 16, but when the passenger steamer Lexington was wrecked near Beaufort, S. C., he stuck to the wireless key and sent out calls for help until the revenue cutter, Yamacraw went to the rescue. His father, Henry F. Sheetz, is head of the manufacturing department of the Presbyterian Board of Publication at Philadelphia. He declared himself very proud of Jack who is soon to take up the work of his last year in the high school in Philadelphia.

SHOES NEEDED FOR POOR "KIDS"

Supply of Humane Officer Exhausted, While Requests for Aid Flow In

With the ring of the school bell comes the cry from scores of children of the poorer class for shoes, is the declaration of C. H. Berry, humane officer, who today finds himself confronted with a hard proposition. On every hand children stand clamoring for the necessary footwear and Mr. Berry's stock of goods, none too large at the start, is today exhausted and while the children are waiting for the shoes, the humane officer is vainly racking his brain for a solution to the problem.

Yesterday morning children came in large numbers to the office of the humane officer and requested aid, and although he was able to furnish some with clothing his stock of shoes were soon gone. The flow of aid seekers has continued and today Mr. Berry finds that his supply is exhausted with a large number yet to be provided for. As there are little or no funds on hand to provide the necessary aid, Mr. Berry has to look to those in more comfortable circumstances for help and urges all who have children's garments and shoes that are not in use to come to the aid of the less fortunate by donating them for the use of the poorer class. Mr. Berry will receive all such aid at his office in the court house.

MURDER UNEARTHED

ABERDEEN, Wash., Sept. 6.—Bloodhounds today uncovered the bodies of the 19 year old twin sons of Henry Bear, a farmer living near Montesano. Their uncle, John Turno, is missing and a posse is searching for him, believing he is responsible for the death of the boys. The lads had gone hunting and when they failed to return a searching party found their bodies near their uncle's cabin. Both were shot through the head.

MADMAN ATTACKS PRIEST

WINDSOR LOCKS, Conn., Sept. 6.—Demanding that Rev. Father Andrew J. Plunkett, pastor of St. Mary's Catholic church, produce President Taft, who he declared was kept in hiding in the priest's house, Frank Canning, a madman, savagely attacked the priest at his home here today. When the demand was not complied with he rushed at the priest, but was overpowered by a policeman. He was sent to the state asylum.

TO ACT ON STOUT SCHOOL

MADISON, Wis., Sept. 6.—The first meeting of the new state board of industrial education will be held next Friday at 10 a. m. at Menomonie, Wis., when the board will consider the acceptance by the state of the Stout institute of that city. State Superintendent Cary was informed yesterday afternoon that next Sunday is the last day for the state's acceptance of the Stout gift, and notified Gov. McGovern of this fact. He immediately called a meeting of the new board.

DETECTIVE GETS ERRING COUPLE

Twenty-two-year Old Wife of Wealthy Farmer Captured with Discharged Farmhand

PAIR BROUGHT TO LA CROSSE

Detective Guards Pair During Time They Are Registered at Local Hotel

After being trailed for several days by detectives set on their trail by an irate husband, Mrs. B. Wells, Baraboo, Wis., wife of a wealthy farmer there, was arrested at Winona Monday in company with D. M. Thompson, formerly employed as a farm hand by Wells.

Following her arrest with Thompson in Winona, Mrs. Wells, the detective, A. R. Kelly, Milwaukee, and her husband, together with lawyers, came to La Crosse. Mr. Wells returned to Baraboo last night.

Closely Guarded Woman During the time Mrs. Wells was registered here she was closely watched by the detective and they left this morning for Baraboo over the Chicago and Northwestern railroad. According to the story told in Winona, Thompson was employed on the Wells farm. Mrs. Wells is a pretty and attractive 22 year old bride. They became well acquainted, so much so in fact that Wells decided to dispense with the services of Thompson. He was paid off and left. A few days later Mrs. Wells disappeared. Suspecting an "affinity" case Wells secured a Milwaukee detective and placed him on the trail.

UNKNOWN MAN HURT BY TRAIN

With his head split open by a fall and unconscious from the wound, an unidentified negro was picked up at 6 o'clock this morning by a pusher engine from Sparta on the Milwaukee road, in the tunnel near Tunnel City.

The man's body was first discovered by the crew of a stock extra running east, which thought the man to be dead, and so reported to the authorities of the road at Tunnel City. The crew of the pusher was sent to bring in the body, but finding him still alive he was taken to a hospital at Sparta.

It is thought that the man, overcome by the gas and smoke occasioned by the passage of the train, upon which he was stealing a ride, through the tunnel, fell to the ground, or else was brushed off the top or side of a car by the walls of the tunnel.

A man is said to have been struck by train No. 55 at the tunnel yesterday morning, but it is not thought that the man picked up today is the same person.

MAY SOON SETTLE MOROCCAN FUSS

PARIS, Sept. 6.—Reports from Berlin, believed to emanate from the French embassy there received here today indicate that Germany will accept the final proposal of France and that the Moroccan dispute will soon be settled.

Panic is Pending BERLIN, Sept. 6.—A near panic in banking circles exists in some of the provincial cities of Germany and France as a result of wild rumors of war. Runs on the savings banks at Stettin, Metz and other cities are growing. The antiquated policy of the government of keeping the nation in the dark as to the negotiation with France over the Moroccan situation was severely condemned today.

The frontier people refuse to believe the large movement of troops in France and Belgium is simply part of the regular maneuvers.

HOODOOED BY "13" HE KILLS FAMILY

ST. LOUIS, Mo., Sept. 6.—Andrew Frick is a suicide today after killing his wife and shooting at his daughter, following a family dinner last night at which thirteen guests were seated at the table.

Frick, a florist, who was host, laughed when one of the guests remarked that thirteen was "bad luck." It is believed he became temporarily insane.

SNOW FALLS AT THE ST. PAUL FAIR TODAY

ST. PAUL, Minn., Sept. 6.—Snow fell at the state fair here today following an attack of brain fever.

It was the first snow of the season and came as a fitting complement to the general appearance of the grounds. The attendance at the fair has been very small so far.

TELLS OF SUICIDE THEN DISAPPEARS

Mrs. G. W. Hicklin Describes Other's Attempt to End Life, but Tale Proves Groundless

DETECTIVES ON THE TRAIL

Officers Trying to Locate Woman Who Disappears After Giving Dramatic Story to Reporter

Where is Mrs. Geo. W. Hicklin, 223 Pearl street, and what did she do with the bottle of chloroform which she averred she had snatched from Mrs. Fred Schultz, a dweller in the same building?

Mrs. Hicklin called up The Tribune this afternoon and declared she had just frustrated a desperate attempt of Mrs. Schultz to commit suicide following a beating administered by the latter's husband. She asked for a reporter.

A reporter was sent to the building and found Mrs. Hicklin in a state of great excitement. She declared Mrs. Schultz had fought desperately when apprehended in the act of swallowing half the poison before it was wrested from her. She said she had called Dr. A. J. Rowles to attend to Mrs. Schultz.

The Schultz apartment was unoccupied at the moment, and after calling up the hospitals in vain the reporter called Dr. Rowles, who denied all knowledge of the affair. The reporter then returned to the apartments of Mrs. Hicklin but found the door locked and the place apparently empty.

On the way out, however, he found Mrs. Schultz and his wife in their apartments. They were surprised and amused when told the story and denied it in toto. They were certainly upon the most amiable of terms, and Mrs. Schultz exhibited no signs either of the alleged beating or of the laudanum.

Notified of the strange behavior of Mrs. Hicklin Detective Joseph McGrath and Officer Frank Wolfe began a search for her. She was not in her apartments, and up to 3:30 she had not been located.

TOADSTOOLS FATAL TO TEN NEW YORKERS

NEW YORK, Sept. 6.—Toadstools sold from a pushcart as mushrooms today claimed their tenth victim this week, when Mrs. Marietta Casico died of the poison. Her husband is dying and it was only the greed of the parents, who ate all Mrs. Casico prepared, that saved the lives of their two children. With several other persons dangerously ill, it was feared that the death list would grow even larger before night.

One suicide has also been caused by the toadstool epidemic, for when Miguel Loprote learned of the death of his wife and son he shot himself and fell dead across their bodies. The recent rains flooded the New York markets with toadstools, which had been mistaken for mushrooms, and today the authorities took steps to curb the sale.

ANOTHER "QUITTER" SEEKS WALL STREET

GAINESVILLE, Texas, Sept. 6.—That the announcement that Senator Joseph W. Bailey will retire at the end of his present term, March 13, 1913, is accepted as irrevocable here, was indicated today when close friends of the senator asserted he would go to New York to practice law. It has long been one of his ambitions to open a New York law office, it was said here today, and the senator will go to Gotham as soon as he can arrange his affairs after his term ends.

FARMERS FIGHT TAFT

ST. PAUL, Minn., Sept. 6.—President Taft, congressmen, senators and the interests were denounced at a meeting of 1,000 farmers called to-day to perfect an organization that it is declared will take an active part politically in affairs in Minnesota and may develop into a national organization or political party.

"Farmers for the welfare of farmers" was the slogan of the meeting. Denunciation of President Taft and the law makers was based on their action on the Canadian reciprocity treaty. They will be for La Follette for president.

REFEREE SMITH DIES

OAKLAND, Cal., Sept. 6.—Eddie Smith, the famous Pacific coast prize fight referee, died at a sanitarium here today following an attack of brain fever.

WINS FIRST FARM

MINOT, N. D., Sept. 6.—The first winner at the opening of the Berthold Indian reservation here today was E. E. Glick of Foxholm, N. D. There was a large crowd on hand to watch the drawing.

FACES PARENTAL IRE

MR. AND MRS. JACK BARRYMORE.

CHICAGO, Ill.—Mrs. Jack Barrymore has been the recipient of hundreds of telegrams sent to her by her father, Sidney Harris, beseeching her not to attempt a stage career. Under the name of Katherine Blythe, the former Katherine Corri Harris is billed for an ingenue role in "Uncle Sam" which is to open here Sunday next. This act on her part comes as a climax to a series of incidents in which the strong will of Mrs. Barrymore has had to combat with the will and determination of her father. It will be remembered that her father raced across the ocean two years ago in an effort to prevent her marriage to Barrymore. It is probable that he will come here from New York to make a personal appeal to her before she appears before the footlights in the presence of society folks.

OLD BRIDGE HAS A MURDER PANIC

New Jersey City Employees Vigilantes to Suppress Perpetration of Many Infamous Crimes

OLDSBRIDGE, N. J., Sept. 6.—Baffled in every attempt to capture the murderer and arson fiend, who has spread terror in this country for years, the inhabitants of the village were thrown into a near panic today when it was learned the big insurance companies have cancelled all policies on Old Bridge property. Steps were at once taken to form a vigilance committee to hunt the criminal down.

Within a month there have been three incendiary fires, two apparently set to accomplish murder. The crime was started with the murder of Mrs. Jane Wright, a blind octogenarian found dead with her throat cut and her little hoard of money missing.

A few days later a barkeeper, who boasted that he could name the murderer and fire fiend, was shot dead in his own home. His father was killed while rushing to the young man's assistance. A laborer made a similar boast and was murdered. A score of incendiary fires complete the story of mysterious crimes which the authorities confess they are unable to fathom.

They believe the murderer is still living here and there are threats of lynching.

THE "BOOMS" OF BOB AND TAFT CLASH

MINNEAPOLIS, Minn., Sept. 6.—Two political pots boiling together threaten to bubble over today, after the vigorous start given in two presidential booster meetings last night. One pot is the exclusive property of Senator La Follette and the other belongs to President Taft. The fire was kindled under the Taft kettle by the Young Men's Republican club. One of the plans evolved to increase the Taft popularity is a gigantic reception to the president in Minneapolis Oct. 24.

The La Folletteites are going to get things started early. Tomorrow night at a banquet here his followers, the Minnesota Progressive Republican league will launch a boom for him properly surrounded with canvas back duck and other delicacies.

Insurgents from all parts of the state have already announced that they will attend the dinner.

TO MAKE ARRESTS IN FREMONT WRECK

FOND DU LAC, Wis., Sept. 6.—Officials of the Soo railroad at division headquarters here today declared arrests will probably be made by night of persons responsible for the fatal wreck on the road at Fremont, Wis., early Tuesday.

The switch block had been tampered with. Three persons were killed and several injured.

EMULATES WEBB SWIMMING FEAT

William Burgess Swims the English Channel in Remarkable Exhibition of Pluck and Strength CALAIS, France, Sept. 6.—William Burgess today swam the English Channel from South Foreland to Cape Gris-Nez at the mouth of Calais harbor, being the second man in history to accomplish the feat. He started at 10:50 a. m. yesterday and left the water at 10:30 this morning. Captain Webb was the first and only previous swimmer to cross the treacherous channel.

Burgess is a Yorkshire man and for several years it had been his ambition to swim the channel and he made a study of it. During his trials he was never actually exhausted but stopped after making a study of the conditions he had to overcome.

The distance from Dover to Calais is 20 miles and from South Foreland to Cape Gris-Nez is slightly less. Burgess' swim was a remarkable exhibition of pluck and determination in the face of adverse tides and heavy fogs. He was accompanied by friends in a motor launch and several times during the long ordeal stopped for food and rest which he took in the water. His mother awaited him at the landing here and was the first to congratulate him.

An effort recently to erect a statue to the memory of Captain Webb, the first channel swimmer, was abandoned when the people of his native village objected because the famous swimmer's figure was draped only in bathing trunks.

Captain Webb, who swam the channel in 1875 performed the feat in 21 hours and 45 minutes. Burgess' time was 23 hours and 40 minutes. Burgess made his first trial in 1904. His successful swim was his tenth start.

JOHNSON LEGATEE GETS NOMINATION

CLEVELAND, Ohio, Sept. 6.—Newton D. Baker on the democratic ticket, and Frank G. Hogan on the republican ticket are the nominees for mayor of Cleveland as the result of yesterday's primaries. Both won easily.

Baker, at present city solicitor, is said to be the man to whom Tom L. Johnson "willed" his political policies. He was the only man on the Johnson ticket elected when Johnson was defeated for mayor two years ago.

Hogan is the present director of public safety.

At Cincinnati, Henry T. Hunt, who recently gained fame by his attempts to have George B. Cox brought to trial for bribery, was nominated on the democratic ticket while Louis Schwarz headed the republican slate.

WILL FLY FROM 'FRISCO TO NEW YORK

LYNN, Mass., Sept. 6.—Harry N. Atwood said today that he would be backed for $50,000 by a syndicate of California in a cross country flight from Los Angeles to New York, which he said he will begin on Sept. 15.

BEATTIE THINKS OF CHILD AT LAST

Pines for Orphaned Babe as Hour of His Crisis Draws Near Today

THE ARGUMENTS TOMORROW

Both Sides Closed Yesterday and Oratorical Effort Will Conclude Famous Case

RICHMOND, Va., Sept. 6.—When Beulah Binford, girl enigma of the Beattie murder case was informed by her mother today that the attorneys and judge had agreed to release her from jail tomorrow, she laughed with delight and said:

"I will leave Richmond as soon as possible and will take the first boat from Norfolk for New York."

"Will you go alone?" was asked. "Well, I reckon I had better not tell about that," she replied with a quizzical smile.

Beulah wouldn't say why she was going to New York or what she will do after she gets there.

"I would give a million dollars to see Henry eat his Sunday dinner at home with his family," earnestly declared Beulah as she leaned across the iron stair rail in Henrico county jail. "I believe he is innocent."

CHESTERFIELD COURTHOUSE, Va., Sept. 6.—The unemotional, sphynxlike demeanor of Henry Clay Beattie, Jr., whom twelve men must decide guilty or innocent of his wife's murder, lapsed today as the young prisoner sat in his steel cell here. He wistfully looked out at the bit of sky through his cell window and for the first time since his arrest expressed a desire to see his baby, left motherless by the awful tragedy of Midlothian.

"I'd like to kiss my youngster," he said plaintively. "I have not seen him since they put me in here."

Hundreds of miles away, in Dover, Del., the month's old child of tragedy is cuddled in the arms of its grandmother. Today was the first time that the fatherly instinct was expressed by the young "prisoner." The man who withstood seven hours of a bitter examination on the stand—today now that the end of his trial was in sight.

"I feel sure," he declared emphatically, "that my appearance on the stand and my testimony convinced the jury of my innocence. I have no doubt that I will be acquitted."

Meanwhile, on the broad lawn before the court house, the jury strolled about taking their exercise beneath the spreading sycamores. From the barred window of his cell the youth confronted with the electric chair could see the men who hold the balance in which rests his future and he strained his eyes to follow them as they walked.

Both Sides Close For anyone but a stoic of the type of Henry Clay Beattie, Jr., today would have been a nerve racking respite. With all the testimony against him in the hands of the jury, for both state and defense closed yesterday, he was locked up for the day while the lawyers wrestled in a technical argument to influence the charge of Judge Watson. The judge went into Richmond to meet the lawyers in chambers and Chesterfield

CUMMINS PUTS ONE OVER The Chicago "Record-Herald's" curiosity recently made it possible for Senator A. B. Cummins of Iowa to make that paper the vehicle for as powerful an arraignment of President Taft as has come from the pen of a contemporary statesman.

The Chicago paper had editorially defended the president as a "progressive," and referring to Senator Cummins' public declaration that he would oppose the renomination of Mr. Taft on the ground that he is not a "progressive," it asked the Iowa solon to show wherein the executive is not a "progressive."

Senator Cummins, in a three-column reply, made it very plain that in no instance is the president a progressive. Space was not available for elaborate discussion of each of the acts of the president that stamp him as a standpatter, but the Iowa senator chose an effective and brief method. He simply named Mr.
Taft's associates in relation to each of the seven important matters with which he has had to do, i. e., the Payne-Aldrich tariff, the railroad bill, the postal bank bill, the income tax, conservation, Canadian reciprocitiy, and the wool and farmers' free list bills. Needless to say, the men whose counsel he took in all of these matters were the arch stand-patters of the administration.

This reply did not enlighten the Record-Herald, whose publishers know that Mr. Taft is as reactionary as they themselves are. However, it gave to the hundreds of thousands of readers of the Record-Herald some valuable information calculated to create public opinion at variance with that sought to be manufactured in that particular sanctum.

RELATIVE STRENGTH

Writing from Washington to The Minneapolis Tribune, George F. Authier says:

"With the opening of La Follette headquarters in Washington, in charge of W. L. Houser of Wisconsin, the real scope and purpose of the La Follette campaign is discloed. It is national rather than local, and neither in Minnesota nor in the nation at large is it to be despised by the friends of the president. While it is generally recognized, except by ardent La Follette men, that the Wisconsin senator cannot be nominated, and probably could not be elected even if he were nominated, the effect of the La Follette movement on the election of the president is likely to be important. It may defeat the election of William Howard Taft."

Men who believe in Senator La Follette realize the tremendous advantage enjoyed by the president over any rival for the republican nomination, his machine control of the southern states alone being a formidable weapon. However, in saying that La Follette men believe that could their leader be nominated he could not be elected, Mr. Authier strays far from the fact. That Taft has the better chance to be nominated, but cannot be elected; and that La Follette by a hard fight may win the nomination, and if nominated will certainly be elected, is the conviction of the followers of "Fighting Bob."

ITS TRUE MEANING

"The word 'country,' with its variants, such as 'people,' 'nation,' etc.," says "Life," "is merely a convenient substitute for words to be concealed."

"A case in point," continues this best of the "joke books," "is the statement of Mr. Joseph T. Talbert, vice-president of the National City Bank, who in commending Aldrich's big bank, said: 'It will secure to the country all the advantages of a great central bank of discount for all banks, without the disadvantages of Government competition in banking.'"

"How much different that would sound if the word 'bankers' were substituted for the word 'country.' Then the statement would be exactly true, for it is the bankers, not the country, that would suffer from Government competition."

"But perhaps the gentleman was misled by the enthusiasm of the moment, no more realizing what his words meant than when he said the plan would secure 'the centralization of the cash reserves of the nation.' While the statement is true, it is also true that the cash reserves are now 'centralized' in the public Treasury where they belong. The change proposed is to centralize them in a private treasury."

"Bankers should be more accurate in their statements. They should learn how to make a sentence balance as well as a set of books."

"Austin," says the "Daily Statesman" of that Texas city, "is given a good boost in the first issue of Civic Progress, a magazine one of the first copies of which reached Secretary Vining's desk yesterday. This magazine is devoted to civic development.
It is published at La Crosse, Wis. On the second page, in tabulating the words of encouragement that the magazine had received, the first quotation is from Secretary Vining, who says, 'I shall be pleased to co-operate with you.' Later on under large display letters appears the following:
'What Summer Music Costs a City.' This is part of the story: 'Last summer the 35,000 people of Austin, Texas, treated themselves to a series of ten band concerts. This summer the citizens appropriated $500 toward the concert fund and as there will be sixteen concerts the city will pay to the extent of about $31 for each concert, an investment that is bound to yield dividends.'"

Yesterday the daily contribution to the La Follette boom was the announcement of Senator Crawford, of South Dakota, that he is for La Follette, and the declaration for La Follette by the Peace publications, farm journals in Iowa, Wisconsin and Kansas. President Taft may Who's Loony Now?

"This division of the women's ward," said the asylum guide, "was made necessary by the new style in skirts."

Looking in, the visitors saw a number of women in queer, bifurcat-ed garments parading up and down the room.

"These patients," continued the attendant, "we call our pantalunatics."

A Puzzle About Women

We don't like to appear curious, but we would like an answer to the following question: Why can a woman travel around the streets or sail out in the country all day under the blazing hot sun bareheaded in an auto, but when she goes to church she must wear a quarter section hat trimmed with a half acre of wheat and eighty acres of corn? Address

The September Oyster

The oyster with September comes,
An animal discreet.
He's mum and quite conservative And never will repeat,
The things he hears, as people do With all their might and main.
Although he's always in a stew He never doth complain, He lingers 'round the grocery store And patiently awaits To meet any one of a Variety of fates.

A lonely figure far from home And far from mother dear, With none to ease his final hours Or speak a word of cheer.
He may be destined to appear At some bang-up church fair And play a star part at the feast—
The only oyster there.

They may make him work overtime And deftly loop the loop To spread his personality Through fifty quarts of soup.
He may take part in some sextette, A half dozen fried,
Far from his native habitat,
The seething, moaning tide.

They may entomb him in some turk For the Thanksgiving feed.
His outlook, it must be allowed,
Is very dark, indeed.
Of all the things that roam the earth Or swim the salty sea,
Who get the double cross for fair, It really seems that he Has not got o'en a gambler's chance To win by any ruse.
The oyster surely takes this view Of life: "Aw, what's the use?"

Her Secret
One day a pastor was calling upon a dear old lady, one of the "pillars" of the church to which they both belonged. As he thought of her long and useful life, and looked upon her sweet, placid countenance bearing but few tokens of her 92 years of earthly pilgrimage, he was moved to ask her, "My dear Mrs. S., what has been the chief source of your strength and sustenance during all these years? What has appealed to you as the real basis of your unusual vigor of mind and body, and has been to you an unending comfort through joy and sorrow? Tell me, that I may pass the secret on to others, and, if possible, profit by it myself."

The old lady thought a moment, then lifting her eyes, dim with age, yet kindling with sweet memories of the past, answered briefly, "Victuals."—September Lippincott's.

Excusable

Not to every judge is it given to reprove a loquacious counsel in the style of Justice Wightman. "Mr., you have stated that before," said that learned and witty judge to a verbose barrister at the Maidstone assizes. "Have I, my lord?" I'm very sorry. I quite forgot," answered the barrister. "Don't apologize, Mr. —; it is a very long time." was the courteous but crushing rejoinder. London Globe.

Very Bad Form

The first night Walter Kelly, known to vaudeville as the "Virginia Judge," walked up the Strand he complained to his English companion that the most famous street in London was dark at 9 o'clock.

"Why," said he, "at this hour Broadway is as bright as day. There is one sign alone, 'The Chariot Race,' in which there are 50,000 electric light."

"But I say, old top," said his English friend, "wouldn't that be rather conspicuous?"—Cincinnati

What's in a Spank

A clean little boy was playing in the road with a dirty little boy. At least, the clean little boy had been clean when they started; but, as he was pretending to be a leopard breaking through a hedge, while his companion rode astride of him, his beautifully starched garments soon lost their innocent freshness and contained more spots than the animal which their owner was emulating.

"Jimmy!" cried a sudden voice from the house.
"Oh, my!" exclaimed the once clean youth, "that's ma."

"What's she want you for?" asked his friend.
"For playing with you!" replied Jimmy. "She told me I'd be spanked if she caught me."

His playmate opened his eyes roundly.
"You aren't goin', are you?" he demanded.
"Course I am!" retorted Jimmy proudly. "I'm not a disobedient boy.
But wait for me," he added; "she don't take long. I'll be out again in five minutes."—London Answers.

"Listen!" she interrupted. "There are about three and one-third millions of them now. Say they are worth, old and young, large and little, one thousand dollars a head—monstrous thing, to put a price upon a human head, but suppose it.
It would amount to but a few billions of dollars. What would a war cost between these two sections?
Perhaps a million dollars a day!
How much cheaper could these slaves be purchased, and deported from these shores! Their owners regard them as property. The laws protect that belief. The Constitution establishes the laws. There is no peaceful way to end the turmoil, save by the purchase of these people. That is a solution. It will prevent a war. Let them be sent away to a place where they belong, rather than here."

"My dear Countess," said Carlisle, "you are, as usual, brilliant.
Your imagination vanities—your daring is splendid. But as usual you are visionary and impractical. Buy them? To do this would require the credit of a nation! It would be subversive of all peace and all industry.
You do not realize the sums required. You do not realize how vast are the complications."

She stepped closer to him in her eagerness.

"All it needs is money, and management. A start, and the country will follow. Mr. Fillmore himself was about to recommend it, in his last message. Let me furnish the money, and do you attend to the complications."

Carlisle rubbed his chin thoughtfully. "It's beautiful; it may be wise, but it's impossible. It would take a king's credit."

"At least we might begin with such funds as are already at hand," smiled the Countess St. Auban. "It might be difficult. I suppose the building of the pyramids was difficult. Yet they were begun. Yet they are finished. Yet they stand, complete, today."

"It is hardly for me to advise in a case so grave as that," said Carlisle. "I should not undertake it.
Have you really considered?"

"I have often followed over the same old course of reasoning, South against North," she said, smiling at him. "Come now, a revolutionist and two abolitionists should do much. You still can fight, though they have taken away your sword."

"Some say that the courts will settle these mooted points," Carlisle went on; "others, that Congress must do it. Yet others are unwilling that even the courts should take it up, and insist that the Constitution is clear and explicit already. These Southerners say that Congress should make an end of it, by specifically declaring that men have a right to take into any new country what they lawfully own—that is to say, these slaves; because that territory was bought in common by North and South. The South is just as honest and sincere as the North is, and to be fair about it, I don't believe it's right to claim that the South wants the Union destroyed. A few hotheads talk of that in South Carolina, in Mississippi, but that is precisely what the sober judgment of the South doesn't desire. Let us match historians," he grinned. "The first historians," he grinned. "The first historians," he grinned.

"No," she said, "only the higher law, that of human democracy. No —we've nothing concrete—except Lily."

"Yes, but let me argue you out of this, Countess. Really, I can see no just reason why the proud and prosperous North should wish to destroy the proud and prosperous South. If the South remains in the Union, it must be considered a part of the Union. New England did not believe in taxation without representation. Ought it to enforce that doctrine on the South?"

"You argue it very well, Sir, as well as any one can. The only trouble is that you are not convinced, and you do not convince. You are trying to protect me, that's all. I have no answer—except Lily! There are some things in the analysis from which you shrink. Isn't it true?"

"Yes, altogether true. We always come back to the bitter and brutal part of slavery. But what are we going to do for remedy? Anarchy doesn't suggest a remedy. For my own part, sometimes I think that Millard Fillmore's idea was right—that the government should buy these slaves and deport them. That would be, as you say, far cheaper than a war. It was the North that originally sold most of the slaves.
If they, the South, as half the country, are willing to pay back their half of the purchase price, ought not the North to be satisfied with that? That's a pretty principle, to the hardest test—that of the pocket."

In his excitement he rose and strode about the room, his face frowning, his slender figure erect, martial even in its civilian dress.
Presently he turned; "But it is noble of you, magnificent, to think of doing what a government hesitates to do! And a woman!"

"Could it be done?" she demanded. "It would require much money.
But what a noble solution it would be!"

"Precisely. I rejoice to see that

HEALTH TALK No. 5

Bread, the Staff of Life, is used universally. The kernel of Wheat contains all the elements necessary to feed the body in almost perfect proportions. Properly milled flour from fully matured Hard Spring Wheat gives the human body the most perfectly balanced ration known.

Bread made from flour that has been improperly milled lacks some of the elements the body craves.

Impoverished food creates in the human organism the same conditions that force people to use narcotics and stimulants. Is it fair to your family to give them bread of this kind? Would you think it conducive to their best health, to give them skimmed milk and tell them it was just as good as fresh rich milk?

It is the same way with flour.

If you want flour that contains all the nourishment of the best wheat, flour that will produce strength, muscle and energy, buy MARVEL FLOUR.

You will be pleased to see how the children grow and how much better their health will be, when fed upon nourishing bread, made from MARVEL FLOUR.

MARVEL FLOUR is made from fully matured hard

MAY APPRENTICE
CLERKS FOR THE P. O.

CINCINNATI, Ohio, Sept. 6.—It was suggested at the annual meeting of the National Association of Supervisory postoffice employees that the government might save from $1,000-000 to $5,000,000 by having boys from 15 to 18 years old as apprentice postoffice clerks.

Postmaster General Hitchcock and other heads of his department, it is said, are now seriously considering the project. At the present time the minimum age limit is 18 years. The plan was broached by P. Maher, superintendent of mails at New Haven, Conn. If 10,000 postal clerks or one-fourth of the force were young boys, Maher, said the efficiency of the department would be greatly increased.

CASCARETS FOR A SICK, SOUR STOMACH

Gently but thoroughly cleanse and regulate your Stomach, Liver and Bowels while you sleep.

That awful sourness, belching of acid and foul gases; that pain in the pit of the stomach, the heartburn, nervousness, nausea, bloating after eating, feeling of fullness, dizziness and sick headache, means indigestion; a disordered stomach, which cannot be regulated until you remove the cause. It isn't your stomach's fault. Your stomach is as good as any.

Try Cascarets; they cure indigestion, because they immediately cleanse and regulate the stomach, remove the sour, undigested and fermenting food and foul gases; take the excess bile from the liver and carry off the decomposed waste matter and poison from the intestines and bowels. Then your stomach trouble is ended forever.

A Cascaret tonight will straighten you out by morning—a 10-cent box from any drug store will keep your entire family feeling good for months. Don't forget the children—their little insides need a good, gentle cleansing, too.

MAY BUILD BIG RIVER STEAMER

Plan On to Raise $25,000 for Packet to Ply from Lansing to Wabasha

If the towns between Lansing, Iowa, and Wabasha, Minn., want a steamboat to run in that territory, $15,000 stock will have to be bought in a new $25,000 steamboat which the owners of the steamboat La Crosse are now contemplating building.

The owners of the La Crosse are ready to invest $10,000 in the scheme but if the balance cannot be raised among the merchants and manufacturers, the scheme will have to be dropped and the present steamer sold. It is the plan to sell the La Crosse if the fund is secured or not, but in case it is raised a fine large packet will take care of the traffic next year.

Plans for a large $25,000 steamer have been drawn by Daniel Peters and Sons of Wabasha and if the necessary amount is raised the boat specified by them will doubtless be accepted. President Peters of the firm has said that he would take several thousand dollars worth of stock in the new boat if built.

The steamer under consideration for next year will be 150 feet in length, and have a beam of 32 feet, thus making it one of the largest on the river. There will be staterooms enough to accommodate 40 persons on board while 800 passengers can be carried. This would be a great improvement over the La Crosse which contained but few staterooms.

A canvass of the merchants and manufacturers in the upriver towns will be made for the purpose of selling stock in the new venture. Captain Muntz and George M. Erickson, the manager, are both enthusiastic over the outlook for getting a new boat for next season and a campaign for funds will soon be started. It was because of the large freight business of this season that a new boat was wanted by the owners, as it was thought that an even larger freight traffic could be carried on while it is considered likely that more passengers would make trips in case a bigger craft with fine accommodations is secured.

It was because of the large freight business of this season that a new boat was wanted by the owners, as it was thought that an even larger freight traffic could be carried on while it is considered likely that more passengers would make trips in case a bigger craft with fine accommodations is secured.

A canvass of the merchants and manufacturers in the upriver towns will be made for the purpose of selling stock in the new venture. Captain Muntz and George M. Erickson, the manager, are both enthusiastic over the outlook for getting a new boat for next season and a campaign for funds will soon be started. BOARD OF TRADE TO MEET TUESDAY

Six O'clock Dinners Will Be Resumed Then, Announces Utermoehl
Today

FAMOUS SPEAKER IS COMING

Expert from the Panama Canal to Address La Crosse People on Work There

After the summer months when no meetings of the board of trade are held, the first session of the fall will be held at the Y. M. C. A. next Tuesday evening, a 6 o'clock dinner and several interesting addresses having been arranged, thus making the program one of the most interesting ever had by the board. The feature talk of the evening will be given by A. W. Wyndham, who has been on the scene and in charge of the building operations of the Panama canal.

As it is thought that many of the citizens of La Crosse are not acquainted with the building and the advantages thereof, the Y. M. C. A. was offered the board for the purpose of giving their dinner there.
Officials of the Y. M. C. A. will speak on the building, the work being done and the advantages offered, thus affording those present an excellent opportunity to learn much about this institution.

Although the board of trade has presented some excellent programs for their meetings, they consider that this one will be the best one they have ever had. Mr. A. W. Wyndham, a civil engineer, who is well acquainted with conditions existing at the Panama canal, having had charge of the work, will deliver an address on the subject, his talk being illustrated by 15 slides which will be shown at that time.

The board considers itself most fortunate in being able to get Mr.
Wyndham to speak for he is a speaker of much renown, having the endorsement of President W. H. Taft, Theodore Roosevelt, Colonel Good-hollow, and several other men of prominence. At present he is on a western trip for the purpose of illustrating and explaining Panama affairs, and the local board of trade secured him for one of the few dates he has open. He has been on the ground at the canal for several years for which reason he is well qualified to explain matters pertaining to the canal.

It is a recognized fact that the average American citizen knows far too little about the Panama canal, President Taft having deplored that this fact was true. For this reason it is hoped that a large number of La Crosse people will be on hand at the dinner on Tuesday to hear Mr. Wyndham, a man who is well acquainted with every phase of the question, explain the conditions existing there.
The slides which he has in his possession make the lecture exceptionally clear and one can easily understand everything after listening to him.

Secretary Utermoehl will have charge of the tickets, which will be on sale beginning tomorrow, for fifty cents apiece. All members are invited to be present and all will be made welcome. There will be plenty of room for all who wish to come, for according to the present arrangements, between 200 and 250 can be seated. It is the wish of Mr. Utermoehl that if he is unable to see each member of the board that those whom he failed to see would call on him and get tickets, as the lecture alone is well worth coming for in addition to which the other features of the program will also be enjoyed.

Following is the committee which has charge of the meeting and dinner: F. A. Reiman, chairman; W. F.
Goodrich, E. H. Hoffman, D. Jehlen, Jr., W. B. Batchelder and J. L. Utermoehl. Secretary Gran of the Y. M. C.
A. is arranging the details connected with the preparation of the dinner, and he promises a fine menu and excellent service.

I. C. MEN ASK FOR LEAVE TO STRIKE

Request for Approval of Strike Vote Now in the Hands of International Officers

TO AFFECT HARRIMAN LINES

It Is Believed Strike on I.
C. Would Spread, as Other Lines Have Made Demands

CHICAGO, Sept. 6.—Officers of the system federation of allied shop employees of the Illinois Central railway today appealed to the international officers of their federation asking that a strike already voted by the men be approved.

The international officers went into conference today to consider the proposition and it was believed that their answer would be made today.
Should they approve the strike vote, it is expected that the strike order will be issued late today or tomorrow.

The request for permission to call a strike, was made to the international body by the executive committee of the system federation followed by a long conference yesterday called when it was found that the officers of the Illinois Central had absolutely refused to treat with the system federation. Since then officers of the system federation have admitted that a strike was immen-ent.

Committee Meets
The action of the executive committee in appealing to the international officers, however, caused some surprise for Secretary W. F.
Kramer of the blacksmiths, one of the allied unions, intimated that the unions would resubmit their demands with modifications. The executive committee was hastily summoned by Chairman J. P. McCreary, who is also president of the system federation. The request was then submitted to the international officers. The federal shopmen of the Illinois Central have voted overwhelmingly to strike.

Harriman Lines Interested
The arrival here today of Julius Kruttschnitt of the Harriman lines, was expected to have considerable influence on the situation. Kruttschnitt planned to hold an early conference with President C. H. Markham of the Illinois Central. The system federation of shop employees of the Harriman lines have also made demands. It was believed in railroad circles here that a strike on one railroad would probably mean a strike on the other. In labor circles it was said that the situation in regard to the Harriman lines would affect the international officers of the federation in their consideration of a strike for the Illinois Central.

FINE NEW SHOW OPENS TOMORROW

Tonight is the last opportunity to see the excellent show which has been pleasing the patrons of the Majestic theatre for the first half of this week. This show must give way tomorrow for the big feature Orpheum show, Carson & Willard a group of Dutch comedians, who are heralded as the superiors of the act known as Weber & Fields. A person could readily surmise the ridiculous situations in which an eccentric team of Dutchmen can place themselves in Hong Kong, where Carson & Willard have placed the scene of their act, calling it The Dutch in China. The Three American Comiques are good singers with plenty of new and original comedy.

"A fantastic Egyptian novelty comedy, in three scenes, depicting the Opium den of Hop Lee and an Egyptian dream, as presented by Cassidy & Lovington, is beyond any doubt one of the best scenic comedy sketches ever presented upon any vaudeville stage," says the Chicago Tribune.

Lavine & Inman will be seen in a rural offering called "Sally's Visit," with special scenery. The czar of ragtime is Axel Christensen, the man of whom Ople Read says, "Of ragtime, the doubled harmony of tune Christensen has made classical, scientific and artistic." One new picture will be in keeping with the excellence of the show.

TELL OF CRIMES OF ANARCHISTS

Sensational Revelations Made by Goldbergs when Arrested for Robbery of Jewelry Store

BOSTON, Sept. 6.—Detailed history of anarchistic depredations in this country and Europe covering murders, dynamiting, robberies and even a pitched battle with police in Boston, was recounted today to local detectives by Jacob and Joseph Goldberg, the two prisoners captured in Trieste, Austria, and brought back here for trial. The trial led to 14 arrests in America and Europe.

The specific charge against them is the robbery of the Ullian jewelry store of $15,000 worth of jewelry in February, 1910.

The Goldbergs today said they will later tell the inside story of the Houndsditch and Steine Morrison murders in London a year ago, which resulted in the calling out of the soldiers and the police and the sensational street scene in London, in which the headquarters of the anarchists was burned and the leaders were shot and killed in their efforts to escape.

According to the confession today two men electrocuted at Charleston for complicity in the sensational Forest Hills murders, three years ago, were members of a gang of men and women sworn to fight in every way against organized law and society.

They said, according to the police, that many times the gang either dynamited or set fire to places of business and made no attempt to rob.
The Goldbergs told the police they had $60,000 in cash hidden in Europe. They said there was a strong bond between the New England band and bands in London, New York, Chicago and Paris.

The Goldbergs pleaded not guilty to the specific charge when arraigned before Judge Lawton. They were held in $45,000 bail each.

Courthouse was practically deserted.
Only the aged gray haired father of the prisoner, hurried over the long, tedious road to comfort his son in his ordeal of waiting.

Beulah in Tantrum
Over in Richmond jail, the slim 17 year old woman, sweetheart of the accused man, shed tears of disappointment. In jail for five weeks, Beulah Bintl was enraged because she was not allowed to shine before the gaping crowd at the trial, or perhaps because she was unable to have a part in the attempt to save her lover. Today she bitterly scored the lawyers for the state.

"They were afraid to put me on the stand," she sobbed. "They knew I would tell the truth and they were afraid of the truth. I could not believe Henry killed his wife and I know that Paul lied. Why don't they let me out of jail? The trial is over and they can't use me any more.
Someone will suffer for this."

Overcome by grief and rage and disappointment, the little girl threw herself on her iron cot.
Arguments Tomorrow
The real beginning of the end of Beattie's fight for life will come tomorrow when lawyers will open their arguments. All of the power of eloquence will be pitted for and for against him. But it is generally conceded that the stolid back country farmers who make up the jury have already settled the case in their minds.

He is Confident
"I will have dinner at home with my father and brother and sister Sunday," said the prisoner. "I have no doubt that the verdict will be in by Saturday night. I watched that jury as closely as they watched me and I am certain that they believed my story and will set me free. I have made arrangements for a family dinner on Sunday to celebrate my release."

In Richmond the detectives for the prosecution continue their efforts to secure additional testimony although the case closed last night.

The possibility of a reopening of the case or of a mistrial is always before them and they are not to be caught unprepared. For the same reason they are fighting against the release of either Beulah Bintl or Paul Beattie from Richmond jail.
It was expected that an attempt would be made to secure a court order for their release today.

EVENT IN HEALTH CRUSADE

First Time This Condition Has Existed Since Presence of Health Commissioner Here

For the first time in the history of the La Crosse health department there is not one quarantine case in the city of La Crosse and when the hundreds of school children yesterday entered upon the fall term there was absolutely no danger of being thrown into contact with children from homes that may be breeding contagion.

This was the announcement made by City Health Commissioner J. M.
Furstman, who announces that the present state of good health came only after months of hard and persistent work on the part of the department.

The nearest thing to contagion existing in the city at present, announces Dr. Furstman, is one case of scarlet fever at a local hospital.
This is well under control, however.

"It is needless to say that we are rejoicing over the condition," said the doctor this morning. "We are more than pleased—we are elated.
I can only say one thing and that is that the condition was brought about only after hard and persistent work to stamp out diseases here."

People Aided Much

"It may be added in connection with this," continued Dr. Furstman, "that much credit is due to the citizens of La Crosse for the interest they have displayed in the health crusade. They have given the department hearty co-operation. The doctors of La Crosse are deserving of credit for the splendid promptness displayed by them in reporting cases that should be brought to the attention of this department and I want to take this opportunity to thank them for the assistance they have rendered me."

MAY LOCATE HERE

E. F. Mertz, who is introducing the new lead window in the city, returned here from Milwaukee today to further consider the proposition of locating here. While in the city he will, if possible, arrange the details of starting a factory in La Crosse.

DIXIE IV WINS FROM BRITON

American Motorboat Takes Second of Series in the International Races

HUNTINGTON, L. I., Sept. 6.—

By capturing the second race of the series of the international races yesterday, the Dixie IV retained the Harmsworth trophy and the world's title for America. The English motor boat Pioneer had trouble in the second stretch of the thirty mile race and before repairs could be made the Dixie IV had gained a four mile lead. The American boat completed the course in forty minutes.

The American boat Viva was second in the race having passed the British challenger on the second stretch, and the Pioneer came in third.

The Dixie IV took the lead in the race by a small margin and at the end of the first seven miles was leading the Pioneer by 300 feet.
This distance was gradually increased and when the race ended the Dixie IV had a big lead. During the last stretch the Dixie IV slowed down.

M'NAMARA FOES SEEM TO BE IN LUCK

INDIANAPOLIS, Ind., Sept. 6.— A decision which may have considerable bearing on the cases of Detective William J. Burns and Special Officer James Hosick when they are tried here on charges of having kidnaped John McNamara, was delivered today by Judge Remster, of the Marion county circuit court, who held that the police action of Indianapolis has no jurisdiction in extradition cases. The circumstances surrounding the case in which decision was given, were similar to those in the removal of McNamara. The decision will be appealed.

Grain Letter.
CHICAGO, Sept. 6.—Wheat opened strong today and by noon prices had advanced still further. The advance brought liberal offerings from commission houses. Northwest markets opened strong. Foreign trade was somewhat mixed.

Corn trade news today was helpful to the buying side and prices opened higher. No deterrent factor appeared during the morning and noon prices were still better. Local offerings were reported light.

Oats were helped today by the upturn in wheat and corn and the market advanced from the opening. These prices were fairly well held. The local trade was inclined to take the buying side. There was no leadership in the morning's trade and the volume of trade was lighter after the first advance.

Provisions were easier today. Brokers declare their belief that products must follow the decline in hogs.

Close—Wheat—Sept. up 1 1/2c; Dec. up 1c.
Corn—Sept. up 1/4c; Dec. up 1/4c.
Provisions—Higher.

IS GERM CAUSE OF STAGE FRIGHT

Some Admit that Shaky Knees May Come from Such Source; Others Say "Pooh"

(By Pierre V. R. Key)
NEW YORK, Sept. 6.—A mere opinion, briefly expressed about a tiny microbe, has plunged musical folk into a spasm of excitement. Pasquale, Amato, the Metropolitan Opera House, baritone, made the statement and the particular germ referred to was said to be the real cause of the nervousness of most professional artists who appear in public.

But a few days have elapsed since the utterance of this theory, yet the time has been ample to create international musical complications. "I shouldn't be surprised if Amato were right," observed Olive Fremstad, one of the leading operatic dramatic sopranos of the world; the first Salome in the Richard Strauss opera of that name.

"Taking impure air into the lungs is sufficient to give a germ every chance, and under such conditions it is reasonable to assume that the power of the will would be impaired. It is a most reasonable assumption and the reputed efficacy of the remedy advanced of taking deep breaths of fresh air just before going on the stage is quite plausible.

"Microbes?" queried Oscar Hammerstein, taking his cigar from his mouth long enough to turn the question in his mind, "sure, I guess a good many of my artists at the Manhattan Opera House had 'em, at one time or another. Looks as though Amato ought to have a scientist's degree."

Wilhelm Bachaus, the English pianist, wasn't certain about the matter. "It's an ingenious thought," he said, "but I am never nervous so I am not in a position to hold an opinion."

"Rubbish!" was the way Paulo Gruppe, the Dutch 'Cellist greeted the question of the interviewer. "When one is nervous he's nervous, and that's all. There are many forms of nervousness; which one does Amato mean?"

Alice Nielson, of erstwhile light opera fame but now a full-fledged member of the Metropolitan, Boston and Philadelphia-Chicago organizations, laughed delightedly when the theory was explained to her.

"What a lot of work Mr. Amato must have done during his vacation," said Miss Nielson. "I suppose he had subjects to experiment on and all that scientific sort of thing. Really I would have to think it over before putting myself on record."

Enrico Caruso, whose voice is now reported to be fully restored, was greeted on his way from the trial of the Cammermorts, at Viterbo, (Italy). The great tenor was in a happy frame of mind and hummed a tune as he walked along switching a light stick.

Caruso listened intently as the idea was made clear, for Amato is his very dear friend. Gradually he began to understand; then his face expanded into a full sized grin. "Good Boy," remarked the Emperor of tenors, slapping his interviewer vigorously on the back. "I am glad you brought me the news. I never have that kind of nervousness and neither does Amato, but a good many musicians do. It's a discovery."

All of which goes to show that the musical wind may blow in two different directions at once.

CITIZENS DAILY ADVERTISE SCHULD

Today there are just 98 people in the city of La Crosse unconsciously advertising our store, quality of our goods, our methods, and incidentally telling their friends to buy their candies and ice cream at Schulds, and it all comes about by our great and original refund system. On Sept. 1, we advertised that on Sept. 4 and 5 we would refund to all customers the amount of their purchase in cash, which they made on Aug. 7. The result was that on these two days we returned the amount of $21.85 to 98 customers that presented their cash register receipts dated Aug. 7, which figures about 22 1-3c to each customer. Some, of course, received more and some less, according to the amount on their receipt. The great secret for you in our method is to not leave our store without getting a receipt for every purchase and save them until Oct. 1, when we will have our next drawing. This is open to every one as we carry a full line of candies ranging in price from 10 cents per pound up to 80 cents. Our goods are deliciously pure and fresh every hour.

A lot of salvage has been gained by picking up derelicts—but they weren't the human kind!

ERUPTION CAUSED TERRIBLE SUFFERING

Baby's Body Covered with Large Sores, Seemed to Itch and Burn, Finger Nails Fell Off. Little or No Sleep. Used Cuticura Soap and Ointment. In 6 Weeks Cured.

"When my baby boy was six months old, his body was completely covered with large sores that seemed to itch and burn, and caused terrible suffering. The eruption began in pimples which would open and run, making large sores. His hair came out and finger nails fell off, and the sores were over the entire body, causing little or no sleep for baby or myself. Great scars would come off when I removed his shirt."

"We tried a great many remedies, but nothing would help him, till a friend induced me to try the Cuticura Soap and Ointment. I used the Cuticura Soap and Ointment but a short time before I could see that he was improving, and in six weeks' time he was entirely cured. He had suffered about six weeks before we tried the Cuticura Soap and Ointment although we had tried several other things, and doctors too. I think the Cuticura Remedies will do all that is claimed for them, and a great many more." (Signed) Mrs. Noble Tubman, Dodson, Mont., Jan. 28, 1911.

For more than a generation Cuticura Soap and Ointment have afforded the most economical treatment for affections of the skin and scalp of infants, children and adults. A single cake of Cuticura Soap (25c) and box of Cuticura Ointment (50c) are often sufficient. Although sold by druggists and dealers throughout the world, a liberal sample of each, with 32-p. book on the skin, will be sent free, on application to Potter Drug & Chem. Corp., Dept. 18A, Boston.

AFRICAN EXPERT VISITS MADISON

East Africa has sent a representative to the college of agriculture of the University of Wisconsin to learn something of the work being done in Wisconsin along agricultural lines. Mr. James Johnston, manager of the government experimental farm at Kabeta in East Africa Protectorate, visited the university last week and examined the work carefully, especially that of the experiment station. He paid special attention to the work with corn and wheat. Recently a large shipment of second corn was sent from the Wisconsin colleges to Africa. Wisconsin seed has given success there, and the German government expects to grow more of it.

SCHOOL NEWS

MADISON, Wis., Sept. 6.—The city superintendents' association will hold its next meeting in Madison Friday and Saturday, Oct. 6-7. The law requires all city superintendents in the state to attend, and their expenses are paid by their respective school boards.

The state department of public instruction has issued a book of games and plays calculated to prove helpful to all grade and rural teachers. The new educational laws passed at the last legislature will be incorporated in a new issue of the school code, and will come from the printer, it is promised, some time before December 1.

NEW BLIND SCHOOL

MADISON, Wis., Sept. 6.—The school board at Bloomington, Wis., has applied to the state superintendent of public instruction for permission to establish a day school for the blind in connection with the regular course of instruction. The granting of this application will make this the fourth school of this kind organized under act of the 1909 legislature, the others being in Milwaukee, Racine and Antigo.

Under the law as amended by the 1909 legislature, the state will pay $200 for each pupil attending such school for 180 days, and will pay in proportion for pupils attending less than 180 days.

ROONEY IS AGAIN CHOSEN

Feifris of Milwaukee was named a member of the board of directors.

HOUSER PREDICTS A GREAT VICTORY

La Follette's Campaign Manager Says the West Is for a Progressive Candidate

MADISON, Wis., Sept. 6.—Walter L. Houser, in charge of the progressive campaign at the Washington headquarters, was here yesterday and left last night for his home at Mondovi, Wis., taking with him outlines of plans by which he hopes to capture delegations of a number of western states for La Follette for president. Houser had a conference while here with some of the leading politicians and state officials. He said he would tarry at his home only a day, as he was enroute to Minneapolis to attend the widely advertised banquet of western progressives on Sept. 7. Unless he changes his plans he will go from there into Iowa and may visit progressive leaders in other western states before returning to Washington.

"The outlook for the progressives is bright indeed," said Mr. Houser, answering an inquiry about the possibility of lining up the Iowa, Kansas, Dakota and Minnesota delegations for the progressive presidential candidate. "From every hand we are getting encouragement. I am going now to Minneapolis to attend a big meeting of progressives and the campaign is going to receive a big stimulus from that source."

Dakota for "Bob"

Andrew S. Bogue of Centerville, S. D., a university of Wisconsin graduate of several years ago, was a Madison visitor yesterday and met the La Follette campaign leaders. He, too, is confident the west is for progressive candidates.

"The people of South Dakota are for Senator La Follette for president," he said, "just as they are in Nebraska. We are going to have a meeting of the progressives at Huron on Sept. 12, when plans for carrying on a state wide campaign for the progressive movement will be formally launched."

TEACHERS MUST PAY FOR PENSION FUND

MADISON, Wis., Sept. 6.—Every school treasurer in the state must now reserve one per cent of every month's salary from the wages of all teachers who begin work in Wisconsin on and after the first day of the present month. This also applies to all other teachers who elect to come under the provisions of the teachers' retirement fund act. Cities of the first class are not included in the law, and hence the time spent as teacher in the public schools of Milwaukee will count only toward the seven years allowed in schools outside of the public school system of the state. Five members—three teachers, one of whom shall be a woman, and the state superintendent of public instruction and the state treasurer ex-officio—constitute the board of trustees of the teachers' insurance and retirement fund law. The three teacher members of the first board of trustees will be elected by the members of the fund at their first meeting, to be held in Milwaukee at the time of the Wisconsin Teachers' association convention, Nov. 9-11. For the present application is to be made to State Superintendent Cary.

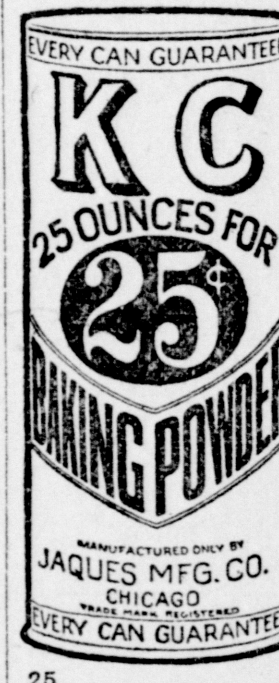

DISINTERESTED WISCONSIN LEADER

MILWAUKEE, Wis., Sept. 6.—It is no surprise to the men inside, says one of them, that President Taft wishes E. L. Philipp to represent him here in the arrangements for the executive's visit next month. The president has great faith in Mr. Philipp and it may be said on the best authority that the latter has more influence at the White house than the whole Wisconsin delegation put together. The president believes that if Mr. Philipp had his way, the Milwaukee convention would not have been the farce that it became when it was subjected to the dictation of "selfish interests."

ATTACKS FAMILY; BLOWS OFF HEAD

WILLISTON, N. D., Sept. 6.—Alex Peters, aged 40, blew off his own head today after attacking his wife and six children with a hatchet. Every member of the family sustained injuries. Thirty wounds about the head and shoulders of Mrs. Peters tell of the fury of his attack. A ten-month-old babe had two gashes in its forehead. Mrs. Peters and four children are in a critical condition. Peters was despondent over financial matters.

STORMS HALT RESCUE PARTY

TACOMA, Wash., Sept. 6.—The rescuing party of four which started up Mount Rainier (Mount Tacoma) in search of Leigh Garrett, who tried early Saturday morning to reach the peak over a route traveled but once before, is camping at the snow line, about 8,000 feet high, and is unable to proceed, owing to storms. Young Garrett undertook the same hazardous trip about ten days ago and fell into a crevasse.

He was still suffering from his injuries when he renewed the effort Saturday. He belongs to a prominent Boston family and was a student in the University of Wisconsin. Mountain guides do not believe he can survive, as the weather on the mountain is bad and the wind is blowing a hurricane.

FISH PLAYGROUND NEEDED

DES MOINES, Iowa, Sept. 6.—There will be no little pickerel, pike, croppies or sunfish to deposit in Iowa streams this fall unless State Fish and Game Warden George A. Lincoln of Cedar Rapids finds some Mississippi bayou as a playground for the minnows rather than a cornfield, and also some Iowa stream which has enough water in it to allow a pickerel to swim, before there can be any fish turned loose in the waters of the state.

"The Sabula bayous are dried up," Mr. Lincoln says. "Corn and wild flowers and weeds are growing where the fish formerly did. Iowa streams likewise are just like your Des Moines river here. I shall go on a hunt for a bayou, which is not a cornfield as soon as the state fair is over."

LIGHTNING KILLS COWS

Two barns belonging to St. Clair Poquette on French Island were struck by lightning about 4 a. m. yesterday during the storm with the result that two valuable cows were killed, one standing beside them received a shock, and a loss of approximately $90 was sustained.

WESTBY, Wis., Aug. 6.—Bishop H. Halversen of the Lutheran church was dragged for half a mile under his overturned buggy and seriously injured about the head when his ran away on the road between here and Bloomingdale, Sunday afternoon.

The bishop was driving down an incline when one of his horses was stung by a wasp and became unmanageable. Before he could bring the team under control or alight from the buggy, it turned over, imprisoning him beneath. His eyes and nose were injured and a bone in his left hand was broken.

BIG COMPANY TO WORK ON CANAL

TRENTON, N. J., Sept. 6.—The Atlantic and Pacific Transport company, supposed to be the concern which is to give service through the Panama Canal was chartered here late yesterday with $15,000,000 capital, all common stock.

The incorporators are: Bernard N. Baker, Thomas B. Erickson, James F. Whitely, Charles G. Heim, all of Baltimore; Adrian H. Poole, of Washington, D. C., and Henry T. Lettis of Jersey City. The latter is the Jersey agent. The papers filed here give no further details.

CATHOLIC CHURCH DEDICATED

KALISPELL, Mont., Sept. 6.—St. Mathew's church, the new house of worship of the Roman Catholics here, was dedicated yesterday. Right Rev. Bishop Carroll of Helena preached the dedicatory sermon. After the invoking of divine blessings upon the walls and altar high mass was celebrated by Father O'Farrell, the rector, and a class of seventy young folks was confirmed. Father Tolman of Spokane assisted in the ceremonies.

CANADA HAS RECORD CROP

WINNIPEG, Man., Sept. 6.—The official estimate of the western Canada crop in three provinces shows: Wheat, 178,500,000 bushels; oats, 223,500,000 bushels; barley, 33,250,000 bushels, and flax 80,000,000 bushels. The season goes on record as the most unfavorable of recent years but the crop is by far the largest in Canada's history.
